Ray Charles

Beyond the Perf

I can just imagine Mr. Charles's response if I were able to tell him today that the Postal Service wanted to honor him on a stamp. "They really want to do that for me? Baby, that's so nice." No matter how many awards and accolades he received, Mr. Charles was genuinely humbled by each and every honor. To him, it meant people appreciated what he loved doing so much — his music.

I first met Mr. Charles when I began working in his office building in 1989. Over the years, I had the privilege of learning from his wisdom about the business and also about life. Mr. Charles never let fame get in the way of who he was. He stayed true to himself and always did what he thought was right. This shaped not only his unmistakable, unique sound, but also his legacy.

In 1986, Mr. Charles created a foundation to make contributions in the field of hearing impairment and to empower young people by offering support to educational institutions. He wanted every child to believe they could achieve anything with practice — that there was no challenge too great to overcome. Mr. Charles knew this personally. He came from poverty, was blind by the age of seven, and orphaned by 15. Yet he became one of the most influential musicians of all time. His music spans genres and generations. He's left a lasting impact on people's lives. He's a true music icon.

It was a great pleasure to work with the Postal Service to create this stamp honoring Ray Charles and his legacy. I know Mr. Charles would be so very proud and excited.

A The U.S. Postal Service proudly honors inspiring musician Ray Charles, whose unique blend of blues, gospel, jazz, country, and soul brought us songs like "I've Got a Woman" and "Georgia on My Mind." ## THE CIVIL WAR 1863 A Native Tumbler with Fire

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate—we can not consecrate—we can not hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract.
Abraham Lincoln

Run them, 'tis past. One year ago, today, I'd say to them, "Last year, along and along and our head like a galloping steed."
"Lament"
Lyrics by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

For a mile up and down the open field before us the splendid lines, of the army of Northern Virginia (they) down to us. They came half way down this slope, wavered, began to fire, then to retreat and then to run, and how our men did yell, "Come on, Johnny, come on."
